

Drive revenue and maximize guest engagement

Connect&GO is a global leader in RFID and integrated attractions management technology.

We help operators move their business forward by providing the most flexible and easy-to-use platform for the leisure and attractions industry. Since 2012, we have been challenging the status quo with disruptive technology that works seamlessly to deliver exceptional results.

Run your business from one place

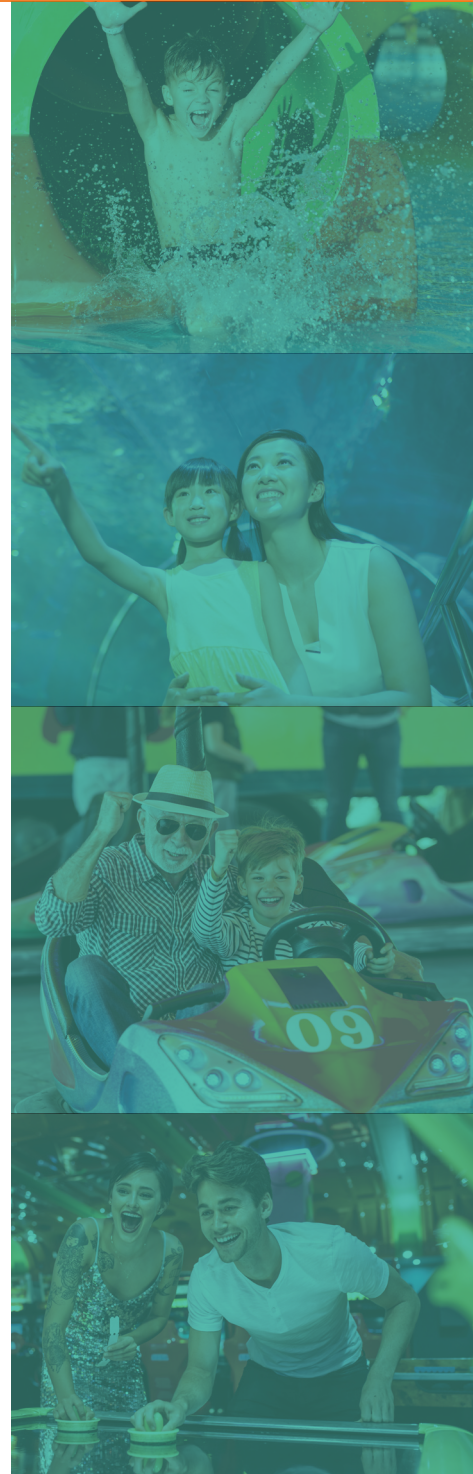

Create premium experiences

Leverage real-time data

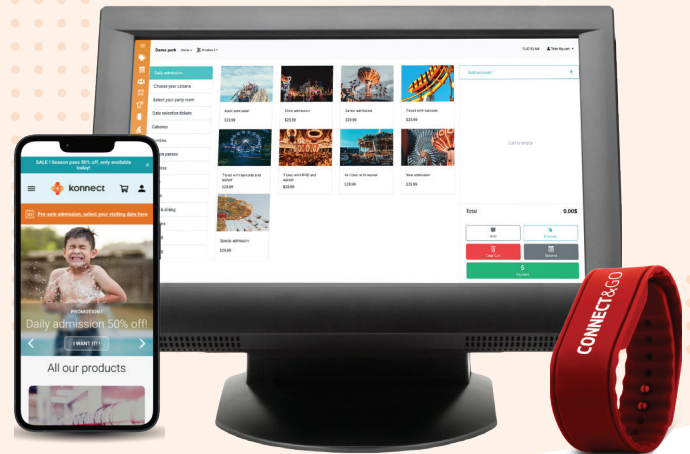

With installations across the world and a company culture that values transparency, trust, innovation, passion and growing together with our clients, Connect&GO is shaking up the future of attractions management technology! See how we can help you break free of the disconnected technology that is holding your business back.

The next-generation all-in-one attractions management platform!

Don't wait for the future. The future is here now, with our Konnect platform! Let us help you drive revenue with our truly connected system and real-time data you can actually use. Step into the next generation of technology today!

Omnichannel ticketing

Increase guest spending with one central platform for cashless and standard payments across all ticketing and sales channels.

Integrated point-of-sale and payments

Manage all aspects of your attraction from one place. Gain access to powerful real-time data you can immediately use.

Innovative Virtual Wallet technology

Centralize your guest data with our connected system and technology that works with RFID media and QR codes.

Replace up to 10 platforms with our integrated solution!

eCommerce Ticketing

Point-of-Sale

Access Control

F&B and Retail POS

Cashless Payments

Parties & Group Booking

Photo & Video

Waivers

Marketing & CRM

Experiential & Gamification

Gift Cards

Analytics & Reports